

February 10, 2022

Right Honourable Justin Trudeau, PC, MP
Prime Minister of Canada
80 Wellington Street
Ottawa, ON K1A 0A3

Sent via email: pm@pm.gc.ca Personal Info. @parl.gc.ca

Dear Prime Minister,

I hope you are well and am glad to know that you are recovered from your recent personal experience with COVID-19.

I am writing to you to convey FedEx's serious concerns with the ongoing blockade of key border crossings between Canada and the United States. We implore government to do all it can to facilitate the safe and immediate re-opening of these essential trade corridors. As you will appreciate, these blockages, if they continue, could have significant and potentially disastrous impacts on our economy and our ability to move goods across the Canada-U.S. border.

At a time when supply chains are already facing inordinate pressure, these blockades are only further hampering crucial cross-border trade and commerce, putting the jobs and well-being of many Canadians and Americans at risk.

Thank you for your attention to this very urgent matter. Please let me know if there is anything my colleagues and I can do to support.

Sincerely,

FEDERAL EXPRESS CANADA CORPORATION

Personal Info.

cc: Hon. Chrystia Freeland, Deputy Prime Minister
Hon. Mary Ng, Minister of International Trade, Export Promotion, Small Business and Economic Development
Hon. Marco Mendicino, Minister of Public Safety